SCOUTS AT A FLAG RAISING

In Honor of Bugler Cecil Smith Ceremony Was Held Sunday Afternoon at the Smith Home

Members of Troop 1 Boy Scouts attended a flag raising Sunday afternoon at the home of Fred Smith, 1301 East Second street, where both an American flag and service flag were raised in honor of Cecil Smith, bugler with Uncle Sam's forces. The Troop went in a body and with formal exercises raised the flags on a flagstaff that had been erected in the yard. Following a bugle call to the colors and a brief talk by assistant scoutmaster, Frank Green, the Scouts gave the flag salute and the oath of allegiance with rousing cheers for Cecil Smith. Photographer Carpenter took a picture of the flag raising ceremony, one of which will be sent to Cecil.

"MRS. SLACKER" IS COMING

This and a Big War Film, "Retreat of the Huns From Arras," Will Be Shown as Red Cross Benefit

According to advance information, Pathe presents an ideal combination of stars and story in the five-reel feature of present-day life called "Mrs. Slacker," which will be at the Christian church Thursday night. In this feature Gladys Hulette and Creighton Hale are presented as twin stars supported by Paul Clerget, the famous French pantomime artist, and the story by Agnes C. Johnston serves as an ideal vehicle for the particularly distinctive artistry of these popular players.

The story tells of the love affair of a boy and a girls, each sincere in their affections, but on the boy's part the marriage is hastened through his desire to avoid draft. The young wife looks upon her boyish husband as being brave and noble and when she finally finds that he is a slacker she herself dons a uniform in teh attempt to make up for her consort's shortcomings.

A German spy enters into the events and the water works are about to be blown up when the boy "finds" himself and spurred by his wife's patriotism circumvents the spy's plans and joins the colors.

The story is replete with heart interest and the dramatic values are greatly heightened by the timeliness and verity of the subject.

The production was staged under the direction of Hobart Henley who has enriched the production with many novel scenes and embellished the feature with an exceptionally fine grade of photography.

STONE IS HONORED

ALL OFFICIAL WASHINGTON AT SERVICES YESTERDAY

THE FUNERAL ESCORT

Many Senators and Prominent Men Accompany Body to State Capital—House Precedent Broken

Washington, April 16.—The body of William Joel Stone, Missouri's late senator went back home last night to the state he represented so many years in the halls of the nation's congress, escorted by two carloads of senators and representatives, relatives and friends. Funeral services were held at the Stone home yesterday before the body was taken to the train. The casket was covered with flowers and the library of the home was full of floral tokens of respect to the memory of the dead senator.

President Wilson was represented at the funeral service by Secretary of State Lansing. The president sent a large wreath of flowers. As the services were held at the home the attendance had to be limited. Nevertheless friends of the late senator filled the house to overflowing and out to the street. Chief Justice White represented the supreme court. For many years he had been a close friend of the senator.

Many Prominent Men at Services.

Others of prominence at the service included Postmaster General Burleson, Vice President Marshall, virtually every member of the United States senate, the senators marching to the funeral; Speaker Champ Clark, the Missouri delegation in the house, and many other house members; Samuel J. Graham, assistant attorney general; former Gov. A. M. Dockery, now third assistant postmaster general; Breckinridge Long, third assistant secretary of state; former Governor Folk of Missohri; E. C. Yancey of Liberty, Mo.; E. P. White and James Minus of St. Louis.

The funeral address was given by the Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, chaplain of the senate. Mrs. William T. Reid of Washington sang the senator's favorite hymns, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul." The scripture reading was from I. Corinthians, xv-20. Mr. Prettyman pronounced an eloquent eulogy on the life work of the Missouri senator.

Every precedent of the house was broken before the funeral that Speaker Champ Clark might accompany the funeral party to Missouri. Under the rules the speaker may not be away from Washington more than three days at a time. Representative Gillette, Republican leader, made a motion asking the house to suspend this unbroken tradition of the house, and it was granted unanimously. Speaker Clark, who had given up hope of going to Missouri with the body of his friend of more than a quarter of a century, was deeply moved by this action. With feeling he thanked the house. Representative Kitchin, a Democrat, was made temporary speaker during Speaker Clark's absence. Mr. Clark will go to Jefferson City and Nevada with the body.

The honor escort of senators who left last night for Missouri with the funeral party included: Reed of Missouri, Senator Stone's colleague; Gallinger of New Hampshire, the aged Republican leader who had sat across the aisle from Senator Stone in many years of service; Hitchcock of Nebraska, Smoot of Utah, Curtis of Kansas, Kendrick of Wyoming, Fernald of Maine, Pitkin of Nevada, Smith of Arizona, Sutherland of West Virginia, and Jones of New Mexico.

Speaker Clark heads the house delegation. It will include all the Missouri members of the house except Representative Booher of St. Joseph, who is in charge of a bill under debate and could not get a leave of absence. Samuel J. Graham, assistant attorney general, is representing the department of justice, A. M. Dockery the postoffice department and Breckinridge Long the state department. Besides members of the family, W. R. Hollister, secretary of the Democratic national committee and for many years Senator Stone's private secretary; J. P. Cochrane, the senator's secretary, and Col. Charles P. Higgins, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, were in the funeral party.

The body will lie in state at the state capitol at Jefferson City Wednesday morning and be taken that afternoon to Nevada, Mo., for burial on Thursday.

SEC. BAKER BACK FROM FRONT

Goes Direct to Washington On Return Without Making Statement Regarding His Visit

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Atlantic Port, April 16.—Fresh from conferences with the war leaders of England, France and Italy, Secretary of War Baker returned to the United States today. He made the return trip on a former German liner now in American transport service. He left immediately for Washington, making no statements regarding his visit.

"I am proud of the American boys in France and would be glad if I had been able to stay over there with them," said Secretary Baker. The first submarine crew captured by the Americans arrived in the same boat with Baker and will be interned.

A TRIO TO TRENTON

YEHLE, ALLEN AND PRICE TO TRACK MEET

ENTRIES IN LOCAL MEET

Craig and Albany Schools Send List of Entrants for Annual Events On April 26 - 27 at Normal

Ralph Yehle, track phenom par excellence, and two other promising athletes, will represent Maryville high school in the inter-high school track meet to be held at Trenton, Mo., on next Friday. The team will leave on Thursday afternoon.

From his showing last year and his preliminary practice this season Yehle is expected to be the individual point winner of the meet and to bring home the cup given to the winner of that honor.

The officials of the Trenton meet have sent a special invitation to the Maryville high school and Yehle's presence is counted upon by them to prove a big drawing card. His picture will appear on the official program as the probable individual star of the contests.

Russell Allen and John Price are Yehle's running mates. Each is expected to garner in several points in the events.

Yehle will enter the high jump, which he won last year, the pole vault, broad jump and fifty yard dash. He has a practice mark of five feet eight inches in his favorite event, the high jump, and has been performing creditably in the other events. His mark in the pole vault is expected to be well over ten feet and it will take better than nineteen feet to beat him in the broad jump.

Allen will perform in the dashes. The furlong dash is his specialty, Price will uphold the honor of his school in the middle distances.

There are several other good track men in the school who are unable to go to the Trenton meet. The finances of the school athletic association are in a very depleted condition and those who go are paying their own expenses.

For the Northwest Missouri Inter-High School track meet which will be held here April 26 and 27, the high school will present a much stronger team. Coach Schultz is especially pleased over the showing of a half-mile relay team composed of Ralph Yehle, John Price, Donald Davenport and Russell Allen. The personnel of the team may be changed as there are other strong candidates for places.

H. P. Swinehart, corresponding secretary of the N. W. I. H. S. A., announced today that two schools had already sent in complete entries for the track events. Craig high school enters four men and Albany nine. Craig high school is entering the meet for the first time. Albany has been prominent in former meets, but was not present last year.

Entries in the essay contest have been received from Hardin, King City, Platte City and Westboro. All essays must bear a postmark of not later than today.

MISS CARPENTER SHOWS HOW

Gives Food Demonstration to Young Women at Food Show Held at Kansas City Last Week

Miss Dora Carpenter returned this morning from Kansas City, where she has been aiding in the food demonstration classes being held there by the Food Administration. Miss Carpenter is district demonstrator for this district.

Sunday's Kansas City Journal has the following account of a demonstration conducted by Miss Carpenter:

'The value of corn meal for bread, also as a breakfast food and dessert, was demonstrated to a roomful of women yesterday afternoon at the food conservation show held at 1111 McGee St. The demonstration was by Miss Dora Carpenter of Maryville, Mo., district home demonstrator of the food administration.

"She dwelt upon the fact that the last crop of corn was the largest in history, and that the yield of wheat was the lowest in nineteen years, pointing the way to the necessity of using all the cornmeal possible in this country to enable the sending of more wheat to the allies. Miss Carpenter said European countries are not accustomed to the use of cornmeal, that they do not know how to cook it, and that there are no mills there to grind such grain, which, when ground in this country and shipped abroad, becomes rancid during the voyage and unfit to use.

"Miss Carpenter demonstrated the food value of cornmeal. Three of the recipes she used produced such excellent results that note books were brought out and the recipes copied."

HUNS THROW NEW TROOPS INTO BATTLE

AFTER A DESPERATE STRUGGLE BRITISH ARE FORCED TO LEAVE BAILLEUL

MAY SHIFT ATTACK TO GAIN THEIR OBJECTIVE

Big Flanders Smash Believed to Be a Diversion to Draw British Away From Positions Defending the Channel and Coast Points

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, April 16.—The battle of Flanders took on fresh intensity last night when the Germans attacked in the Bailleul sector with thirty-six thousand fresh picked troops and after a desperate struggle compelled the British to retire to a point north of Bailleul. At the same time the Germans renewed their drive in the Wulverghem district, where the British, after a gallant resistance fell back to strong new positions to the north of that Belgian village.

Indications are piling up that the Germans planned their real grand offensive in the north and that the drive towards Amiens, which was carried out on a great scale and on a great magnitude, was a diversive movement to draw the British troops away from that sector from their positions defending the channel coast between Arras and Ypres.

Further north on the Flanders line the Germans renewed their direct frontal attacks against the famous Messines ridge crest, which is firm in the British hands.

Beginning this morning the Germans began assaulting the Wytschaete section ridge, but the outcome of the fighting in that zone is not yet known.

London, April 16.—Bailleul, one of the local objectives of the Germans on the Flanders battle front, has been taken by the Teutons, the British war office reported today. Ever since last Saturday morning the Germans have been throwing huge forces of troops against Bailleul and the attacks were concentrated along the Hazebrouck railroad in the sector of Merris and east of Neuve Eglise. The Germans hoped by these thrusts to create a twin salient and ;'pocket" Bailleul just as they did Armentieres. (Bailleul is six miles northwest of Armentieres and eight miles from Hazebrouck).

It is expected the Germans will now begin to direct their chief pressure towards Hazebrouck. The battle line in the Merris sector is still about five miles from Hazebrouck.

Bailleul has been under the German artillery fire for several days and its loss by the British is not regarded as highly important from a military standpoint.

"TOBACCO IS BIG NEED."

Fond du Lac, Wis., April 16.—"Tobacco is the big need of the troops in France just now," said Captain A. R. Brunet, former commander of Company B, 150th Machine Gun Battalion of the Rainbow Division, who was relieved of his command early this month and who has just arrived home. Captain Brunet says that the "Rainbows" are trained to the minute, and when he left were anxiously awaiting orders that would get them in "the big scrap."

The New GOSSARD CORSETS for Spring

WHILE retaining all those qualities that have characterized and famed Gossard corsets in past seasons, they strike a new note in corsetry—a subtle change that is reflected in a more delicately beautiful outline and in an even more graceful flat back.

Youth is the keynote in the style of these new Gossard models.

Without any undue pressure you are assured absolute comfort and freedom of movement because the Gossard secret of scientific boning assures the most perfect support where it is needed; proper breathing is induced and the whole body thrown into the healthful poise advocated by your physician.

This is the
Thirty-second Announcement and Proclamation of Gossard Corset Styles for Spring and Summer, 191-

The new models vary in height of bust and length of skirt—as they should—to meet the individual requirements of the various figure types, but the general tendency is toward less corset, lower bust and shorter skirts with a smaller waistline indicated by skillful designing rather than actually expressed.

Be fitted today to one of the many models designed for your figure type at $2.00, $2.50, $3.50, $4.25, $5.00 and up. An expert corsetiere who understands your corset problems will deem it a pleasure to fit you without obligation.

CLAIMS PERPETUAL LICENSE.

Los Angeles, April 16.—Colonel J. B. Lankershim claims that he paid the city $3,333.33 for a perpetual liquor license and that he should be allowed to conduct his establishment despite the fact that the people voted out the saloons. If not, the colonel says, he will sue the city for the recovery of his money. It is believed that Colonel Lankershim's perpetual license is the only one of its kind in the United States.

Mid-Season Hats

THE development of Mid-Season Hat styles is now the chief concern of our Millinery Department.

Ideas that have survived the early spring season are being reproduced in mid-season colors and materials, and in addition many new features are being created in prepararion for the continued demand.

Feathers are much in use at present, odd-shaped wings, breasts and quills are freely used in various ways to give attractive effects.

Maline and Flowers continue to receive much attention on dressy hats. Poppies, pansies, roses, daisies and other flowers are very prominent among the trimmings.

Large hats, medium sizes and small turban shapes are much in demand. The small shapes having ribbon and feather trimmings while the larger shapes are featured with flowers, maline and crepe.

All black, all white, black with white and a score of other exceedingly delicate shades now so fashionable in spring frocks are all prominently represented.

Come and see our mid-season display of hats—if we have not a model exactly suited to your wants, we will trim one to your liking.

Make Him Prove It

Don't let some dealer talk you into believing he has just as good a player piano as the GULBRANSEN—Make him prove it. How? Try them out side by side. If he refuses to grant this trial it is pretty conclusive evidence that he is afraid to. If a dealer prices you a player at $750 and winds up by selling it to you for three or four hundred less it show that something is wrong somewhere.

Gulbransen Player Pianos

are nationally priced, sensibly priced, and the best value in player pianos in the world. They are guaranteed for ten years by the Gulbransen factory, and in addition, if you buy them here, the LANDON guarantee goes with each piano and also the LANDON Service. The GULBRANSEN Suburban Model Player, equipped with bench, scarf and rolls, same price to everybody, $395. Other styles, up to the beautiful White House model at $525. Let us demonstrate this wonderful player piano to you. We accept your old piano or organ in exchange on these players.

We are making a special price this week on our Karmann upright pianos, oak, mahogany or walnut case of $255. See this piano in our window.
